

HYDROLOGY REVIEW NOT REQUIRED
THESE EXCEPTIONS SHALL NOT APPLY TO ANY STRUCTURES
LOCATED IN REGULATED FLOODPLAINS

- 1) Home decks
- 2) Home additions on the second floor
- 3) If previous inspection of a foundation and marked approved by Hydrology
- 5) Minor additions (less than 200 square feet) to a previously inspected home
- 6) Detached accessory buildings less than 288 square feet
- 7) Carports
- 8) Interior modifications to a home
- 9) Homes on remote parcels of 10 or more acres with the exception of those next to Cataract Creek or some other comparable drainage
- 10) Replacement (on the same pad) of manufactured home
- 11) Garage conversions to an additional room in the home
- 12) Structures in other remote areas where we have had no flooding issues
- 13) New roofs
- 14) Grading permits that do not require review of the drainage plan
- 15) Accessory addition less than 200 square feet

ALL OTHER TYPES OF CONSTRUCTION MUST GO THROUGH HYDROLOGY APPROVAL